

CORE VALUES

Christ-Centered: Committed to the life, words, way, and Spirit of Jesus, and passionate about inviting others to experience him.

Biblically Rooted: Grounded in a faithful study of the Bible, both privately and in small groups.

Open-Minded: Engaging a variety of perspectives while affirming each other's worth and humanity; seeing the truth that the Spirit offers in people as we search, think, question, and honestly express our growing experience of the faith.

Warm Hearted: Welcoming and expressing love to all people and seeing the image of Jesus in others as God's children, regardless of differences.

Mission-Directed: Called to serve others, bringing hope and healing to others near and far, by making a difference for God's kingdom on earth.

Connection Committed: Passionately welcoming others into an experience of God's love and connecting to each other in faithful community.
